CLOSE OF THE FISHING SEASON .- This is the last day of the shad and herring season, according to the statute. The shad are speedily disapearing from the river and returning to the deep sea. The law makes tishing for shad and herring unprofitable after June 10. In Washington it imposes a fine of $25 for every fresh shad or herring offered for sale after that date. The purpose is to give some of the fish that come into the river a chance to spawn. An old fisherman says it is his opinion that there were enough left in the river after the legal season closed to do considerable toward keeping up the supply. Capt, W. E. Stewart, who has managed fisheries on the Potoart, who has managed fisheries on the Potomac for many years, says that while undoubtedly there had been an increase in the numbers of shad during the past three or four years the seine fisheries on the river had not been very profitable. This was due to the change in the modes of fishing, and especially to the use of poundnets, at the mouth of the river and far down the hay. These poundnets are set out and the bay. These pound-nets are set out and fish twenty-four hours out of the twentyour, catching everything that comes along. The owners go once a day, raise the nets, bail out the fish, and place the nets back again in the water. He thought, however, that on the whole the work of the Fish Commission in propagating shad had had good results. Gill net fishing as well as all other fishing with nets is forbidden in the These gill-nets are light contrivances, easily operated, generally by one or two men, and so meshed that the fishes running their heads through the interstices are caught by the gills. There is some gill net fishing done on the sly" in the District waters at night. Although it is legal to fish for shad any time between the 1st of January and the io.h of June, the shad seldom appear in the Potomac until the first of April. Mr. tiwynn Harris, the inspector of marine products for Wash ngton, says his report for the season, when completed, will show a gratifying increase in the catch as compared with last year.

the heavy shower yesterday afternoon, a large number of persons, including many ladies, assembled at the barracks of St. John's Academy, to witness the prize drill for the beautiful gold medal given by Mr. Wilford C. Potter, of Elmira, N. Y., a former commandant. Lieuts. Monroe and Bryan, of Co. F. 3d Va. Vols., the latter a graduate of St. John's and once a lieutenant in its cadet corps, acting as judges. About twenty-five cadets participated and from the quickness with which they were thrown out, it was inferred by the spectators that the drill the cade was the control of the cade was the cade of was a poor one. The judges say, however, that it was the best they have seen in the school, as they threw out on very small points, and that the boys had be conducted as heretofore. manifestly profited much by their prepara-tions for the National Drill. The chief con-test was between three cadets, James H. been in it only since February 1st, it was expected that Causten would be the winner, but being very nervous he unfortunately brought his piece to the ground ahead of time in an order, and thus gave the prize to Tubman, who was warmly convertabled by Tubman, who was warmly congratulated by his comrades. After the prize drill, a squad of six junior cadets, in blue and gold uniforms, under the command of J. David Lannon, gave a very pretty exhibition drill

THE NEW OFFICERS' BONDS .- Most of the bonds of the nearly-elected corporation officers have been filed with the Auditor, the time for doing which expires to-day. The mayor gives $5,000 bond; the tax collectors $30,000 and $35,000; the gas officers, each $1 000; the inspectors of lumber, wood, &c., $500 each. The law requires that each bond | pass. and surety shall be subject to the approval of the finance committee, and shall be submitted within fifteen days next after the election, and if a bond approved by the committee shall not be given within that time, the committee will report the failure to the city council at its next meeting and the council shall proceed to elect another officer in the place of the person so failing. This law does not prevent any officer whose office has become vacant by failure to give bond as required, from being re-elected to said office. The bonds of all the officers are kept by the auditor, except the auditor's bond, which is placed in custody of the olerk of the common council.

RESTRAINING ORDER, &c.-Early this morning deputy U. S. Marshal Overby, of Richmond, who arrived here last night, served notices on Commonwealth's Attorney Marbury and City Treasurer Harlow, restraining them from bringing suit against any person who has tendered coupons in payment of taxes due the State as provided or and directed by the act of the Legislature of May 12 last, and restraining them from doing any act to put said statute into force until the future action of the U.S.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and warm, with one prisoner at the station house. The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Geo. Swansbury, charged with vagracy, was fined $1.

Mary Gray, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $1.

Two females, living on north Lee street, charged with keeping disorderly houses, were fined $50 each; and a similar case against another woman was continued.

The quotations are 4.26 for 96 test centrifugal. For refined Sugars the market is quiet and steady, with a fair demand for distribution at current prices. We quote hards at $6.50 for powdered and $6.12 for granulated. Softs—$6.25 for mould A, $6.06 for confectioners A and $5.75 for standard A.

Coffee—The market for invoices is dull and nominal. The speculation has weakened, and there is little demand at the moment, though, as the stock is light, holders continue to ask full prices. The sales were 4.000 to 5.000 bars, in lots, at 2034 to 22c. The jobbing trade is dull and orders are uncertain. We quote Rio invoices as follows: Ordinary at 22c, fair at 224g. good at 23c, and prime at 234g c per ib, 90 days.
